

Goal-Setting Questions

To promote deep, broad thinking and connect goals to personal core values and beliefs.

Folio Collaborative and Sarah Dugan

-  What do you envision accomplishing this year as an educator, and what evidence might you look for to measure your progress?
-  What would you have to believe about your students in order to make progress toward this goal?
-  Do you believe the above?
It's ok if not, maybe it's something you aspire to believe at this point.
-  What are the possibilities if you hold on to this belief all year, even at times when you are frustrated with your students?
-  What actions might you take this year that align with this belief?
-  How does this belief fit with your personal values?
-  Are there any beliefs that you have had or currently hold that might inhibit your ability to meet your goal?
